

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93
POINTS

WildAire 2018 Yates Conwill Vineyard Pinot Noir (Yamhill- Carlton)

There's a pleasing softness to the mouthfeel, that opens up this young wine. It's generously accented with flavors of toast, baking spices, sandalwood and almond paste, but the blueberry-blackberry fruit holds down the center. It's an instantly likable wine, with medium weight and a drinking window through the late 2020s.

— P.G. Published 7/1/2021

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93
POINTS

WildAire 2018 Yates Conwill Vineyard Pinot Noir (Yamhill- Carlton)

There's a pleasing softness to the mouthfeel, that opens up this young wine. It's generously accented with flavors of toast, baking spices, sandalwood and almond paste, but the blueberry-blackberry fruit holds down the center. It's an instantly likable wine, with medium weight and a drinking window through the late 2020s.

— P.G. Published 7/1/2021

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93
POINTS

WildAire 2018 Yates Conwill Vineyard Pinot Noir (Yamhill- Carlton)

There's a pleasing softness to the mouthfeel, that opens up this young wine. It's generously accented with flavors of toast, baking spices, sandalwood and almond paste, but the blueberry-blackberry fruit holds down the center. It's an instantly likable wine, with medium weight and a drinking window through the late 2020s.

— P.G. Published 7/1/2021

WINE ENTHUSIAST

93
POINTS

WildAire 2018 Yates Conwill Vineyard Pinot Noir (Yamhill- Carlton)

There's a pleasing softness to the mouthfeel, that opens up this young wine. It's generously accented with flavors of toast, baking spices, sandalwood and almond paste, but the blueberry-blackberry fruit holds down the center. It's an instantly likable wine, with medium weight and a drinking window through the late 2020s.

— P.G. Published 7/1/2021